MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Rockford Public Library is to serve as a resource center for the community and to provide free and equal access to information, materials, services and programs, including internet accessibility, designed to meet the informational, learning, cultural, and recreational needs of our citizens.

POLICIES

RESPONSIBILITY FOR LIBRARY OPERATION

- A. The Board's responsibility to the community is to represent the library both to the people and to the officials of the city. It is the trustees' obligation to see that adequate funds are obtained for good library service and that the taxpayer receives a fair return on his investment of tax dollars. This results in the highest quality of library service maintained for the largest possible number of citizens.

- B. The Board of Trustees of the Rockford Public Library consists of citizens appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council. A rural member shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the County Supervisors. The Library Board is a policy-making group whose duties are the following:
 - 1. To determine the policies of the library, formulate them in writing and evaluate them at least every 3 years.
 - 2. To select and appoint a library director whose duties are defined in the job description, and to formally evaluate that person's performance annually.
 - 3. To advise in the preparation of the budget, approve it, and request the necessary funds.
 - 4. To provide for adequate buildings.
 - 5. To study and support legislation which will bring about the greatest good to the greatest number of libraries.
 - 6. To help promote good public relations for the library.

- C. The Library Director shall have sole charge of the administration of the library under the direction and review of the board. The library director shall be held responsible for the care of the building and equipment, for the employment and direction of the staff, for the efficiency of the library's service to the public, and for the operation of the library under the financial conditions set forth in the annual budget. The Library Director shall attend all board meetings.

GENERAL LIBRARY OBJECTIVES

The general library objectives of the Rockford Public Library shall be:

- A. To promote enlightened citizenship and enriched personal lives through guidance and stimulation in the communication of ideas. To do this requires assembling, preserving, and administering an organized collection of educational and recreational library materials.
- B. To serve the community as a center of reliable information.
- C. To provide a place where inquiring minds may encounter the original, sometimes unorthodox and critical ideas so necessary as correctives and stimulants in a society that depends for its survival on free competition of ideas.
- D. To support educational, civic, and cultural activities of local groups and organizations.
- E. To provide opportunity and encouragement for children, young people, men and women to educate themselves continuously.
- F. To seek continually to identify community needs, to provide programs of service to meet such needs, and to cooperate with other organizations, agencies and institutions which can provide programs or services to meet community needs.
- G. To provide opportunity for recreation through the use of literature, music, audio/videos and other art forms.

WHO MAY USE THE LIBRARY

- A. The library will serve all residents of the city and rural areas, and those eligible through the Open Access program. Service will not be denied or abridged because of religious, racial, social economic, sex, political status.
- B. The use of the library or its services shall be limited when excessive demands of groups or individuals tend to curtail service to the general public. Such demands may include those made by students, puzzle contestants, and others whose demands for staff time, available materials, or space would prohibit attention and service to other library customers.
- C. The use of the library or its services may be denied for due cause. Such cause may be failure to return library materials, destruction of library property, inappropriate behavior.
- D. CONFIDENTIALITY: Library patron and circulation records shall be kept confidential, unless otherwise ordered by a court, by the lawful custodian of the records, or by another person duly authorized to release such information. (Iowa Code Chapter 22.7) The Rockford Library Board of Trustees appoints the Library Director as the lawful custodian of all library records.

The records of a library which, by themselves or when examined with other public records, would reveal the identity of the library patron checking out or requesting an item or information from the Library are confidential. The records shall be released to a criminal justice agency only pursuant to an investigation of a particular person or organization suspected of committing a known crime. The records shall be released only upon a judicial determination that a rational connection exists between the requested release of information and a legitimate end and that the need for the information is cogent and compelling. (Iowa Code Chapter 22.7)

The Rockford Public Library Board of Trustees recognizes that circulation records of the Library are confidential in nature and advises all library employees that such records shall not be made available to anyone other than the person to whom the materials are checked out, without a court order.

Library Bill of Rights

The Rockford Public Library Board of Trustees affirms its belief of the following basic policies which would govern the services of all libraries. The Board agrees with the American Library Association Library Bill of Rights, which follows:

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the Library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
5. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
6. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations or individuals or groups requesting their use.

BORROWING PRIVILEGES

For the convenience of library customers, the Library maintains collections of materials for children, young adults, and adults. Anyone may select from any part of the Library Collection.

To serve all ages, the Rockford Public Library selects materials from a broad range of political, economic, religious, or artistic viewpoints. Whether it might be a book on sex education, information on controversial issues, or a video rated PG 13 by the Motion Picture Association of America, on occasion there may be materials on subjects that you, as a parent, may consider unsuitable for your own children. Therefore, parents are encouraged to come with their children to assist them in selecting materials.

INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM

Freedom to Read:

The Rockford Public Library Board of Trustees affirms its belief in the Freedom to Read statement as approved by the American Library Association.

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those which are unorthodox or unpopular with the majority.
2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as the standard for determining what materials should be published or circulated.
3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.
4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.
5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept the prejudgment of a label characterizing any expression or its author as subversive or dangerous.
6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large; and by the government whenever it seeks to reduce or deny public access to public information.
7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a "bad" book is a good one, the answer to a "bad" idea is a good one.

Freedom to View:

The Rockford Public Library Board of Trustees affirms its belief in the Freedom to View statement as approved by the American Library Association.

The Freedom to View, along with the freedom to speak, to hear, and to read, is protected by the first amendment of the Constitution of the United States. In a free society, there is no place for censorship of any medium of expression.

Therefore these principles are affirmed:

1. To provide the broadest access to film, video, and other audiovisual materials because they are a means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantee of freedom of expression.
2. To protect the confidentiality of all individuals and institutions using film, video, and other audiovisual materials.
3. To provide film, video, and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.
4. To provide a diversity of viewpoints without the constraint of labeling or prejudging film, video, and other audiovisual materials on the basis of the moral, religious, or political beliefs of the producer or filmmaker or on the basis of controversial content.
5. To contest vigorously, by all lawful means, every encroachment upon the public's freedom to view.

The collection of the Rockford Public Library shall be weeded on a regular basis in order to maintain a collection that is the most useful and factually accurate. Factors to be considered in the weeding process shall include the following:

1. Usage – based on the latest recorded circulation data.

Reviewed, revised, reaffirmed September 2014

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

It is to the Library's advantage to have a well-educated staff. For this purpose the Library offers, as the budget permits, funds to aid staff members to attend continuing education programs directly related to Library issues.

PERSONAL SAFETY IN THE WORK PLACE

The following suggestions are guidelines compiled to ensure that the Rockford Public Library remains a safe place in which to work.

1. Trash is placed in a dumpster behind City Hall. Because it is located in a dark secluded area, trash should be taken out during daylight hours.
2. Library staff usually parks on the east side of the building, leaving parking space on Main Street for customers. When working at night and still parking on the east side, it is a good plan to park well up the block toward Main Street where there is more traffic and street lights.
3. Exit the building from the south door fronting on Main Street rather than using the east door when working past sunset.
4. The Library building is well-lit, inside and out, and all switches are by doors. Turn the lights on before entering a room to prevent accidents.
5. If you are uncomfortable in the Library for any reason, use the phone to call someone to come be with you. During the day, city employees are next door and in radio contact with other employees.
6. In the event that a patron make you feel your personal safety is at risk and the situation is getting out of control, call the police. Sometimes just saying that is your next step will be enough. Leaving the building and calling for help will get attention in a small town.

Reviewed and Reapproved January 2015

EMERGENCIES

Emergency phone numbers must be posted by all Library telephones.

All exits must be clearly marked.

Emergency Procedures Policy must be posted in the meeting room and in the Library.

The highest ranking staff member is responsible for all patrons in the building at the time of the emergency.

Fire: In case of fire, evacuate the building immediately. There are two exits upstairs and two downstairs. Fire extinguishers are available on both floors. Call 911 from a telephone away from the building.

Tornado: If a siren is sounded in Rockford for a sighted tornado, take all customers with you to the basement, going either to the closet under the stairs or taking cover beneath a heavy table against an inner wall.

Gas leak: In case of a gas leak, evacuate the building immediately and call the gas company.

Bomb threat: In case of a bomb threat, evacuate the building, lock the door and call 911. Remain calm and if the threat comes by telephone, try to ascertain the gender and age of the caller.

Medical Emergency:
In case of a medical emergency, call the Rockford Medical Clinic (during the work day) or an ambulance (if after Clinic hours), using basic first-aid techniques if necessary. For body spills, including blood, have the injured/ill person apply bandages and/or wipe up the body spill. The staff member should never clean up body spills without using protective gloves.

LIBRARY OPERATIONS
TELEPHONE AND FAX POLICY

1. The Rockford Public Library has a telephone for library business. Calls by customers will be allowed if the calls are brief, thereby not interfering with incoming business calls. An example of such a call might be a child needing to call for a ride home.

2. It is preferred that customers not receive calls at the library. The librarian will deliver a message to a customer as time allows.

3. The fax machine is mainly for library business. However, it is available during regular library hours for library customers and business persons to send and receive information. Costs (subject to change due to changing costs) for this service are:

Sending (within the continental US): $2.00 for the first page;

$1.00 for each of the next four pages;

$.50 for each page thereafter.

5. Due to space limitations, there will be no storage of equipment or records belonging to groups using the room.
